SYNOPSIS

The bellhop has many troubles in the hotel while performing his duties. A band of villains, intent upon securing some valuable papers, which the manager has hidden in his safe, takes rooms in the hotel. The story unfolds introducing a young maid, who is really a detective. She gets Larry to work with her to thwart the evil designs of the gang. The gang tries to bribe the hotel manager, and finally induce him to give up the papers. Larry holds up the gang, gets the papers and makes his escape, chased by the others. Hands the papers over to the girl who leaves in an airplane. The villains thinking Larry, the bellhop, has them, pursue him. The leaders take refuge in an airplane - and the bellhop, finding explosives placed inside the barn, grabs the rope ladder extending from the villains' plane. He is forced to turn over the empty wallet, and then the villain cuts him adrift of the plane. He lands on the wing of the girl's plane, and is rescued. They put the villains to rout, and all ends happily for the bellhop.
